

SYSCO Food Service of Northern New England facilities have aggressively reduced kWh usage. In the past three years kWh usage has been reduced by more than 32%. Through training, operations, controls, capital allocations, setting goals and measuring results, SYSCO Food Services of Northern New England is committed to making wise energy choices for our customers and the environment.

